

Comments from audiences about the 35th annual concert:

The theme and the contents of the concert were well chosen and the main message of the concert was powerfully conveyed through words and music to the concert goers. I loved the diversity of the performers and the variety of music presented. All the solo performers were masters of their instruments and they performed their pieces beautifully with feelings. The Cantonese opera piece, in particular, demonstrated the potentials for using this medium to express the Cantonese immigrant experience in the U.S. I hope it will stimulate further performances and help revive and revitalize this genre that has been dormant for decades in Chinatowns across the U.S. --- Ling-Chi Wang

I believe it is best performance that I have witnessed. Don't retire; keep up the good work! --- San Yuan

今年的音乐会我认为是感触最深一个，也是最出色一个。 --- Holton Lee
